Animal Corp#1 Kickstarter Campaign Hits Atlanta during Nat'l Black History Month 2024

Atlanta, GA- Ten Talents Studio releases its Kickstarter campaign for Animal Corp #1 during National Black History Month in 2024. Brian Proctor, creator and artist of Animal Corp, is letting everyone know that their Pledges gives them the opportunity to be part of something special.

"Animal Corp is a great sequential comics project from Brian Proctor and his team at Ten Talents Studio. This dystopian trip into the survival of the human race from the hands of a voracious invading horde from beyond the stars is great. Their proxies fighting on their behalf are a handful of Animal cyborg hybrids, thus the Animal Corp is born!" - Jason Bullock, Hero Central Studio.

Brian Proctor has partnered with a great team of creatives, a writer, penciler, inker, colorist, letterer, and Editor to create Animal Corp #1. Everyone is now invited to pledge financial support at KickStarter to be part of History. Pledgers can get a variety of rewards including signed copies, stickers, magnets, posters, chapbooks, ad space in upcoming issues and even special events with the artist. Follow the link through their website to pledge at KickStarter, www.10talentsstudio.org.
